

Adult Program Trip– Read & Go What the Dog Knows Wednesday, November 7

Have you ever wondered how search & rescue dogs are trained? Did you read What the Dog Knows by Cat Warren? Come with us to Durham, NC. We will be leaving from Anne Gordon Active Adult Center at Millbrook Exchange Park (1901 Spring Forest Road) at 8:45am.

Travel to Durham, NC with Cat Warren the author of What the Dog Knows. Cat will spend the day with us as we learn about training and working with search and rescue dogs. We will see a demonstration of a puppy in training and see what is done to create and encourage scent detection and drive in the dogs. A police officer will give a demonstration of his cadaver dog skills. Additional demonstrations have been scheduled but are based on the availability of the officers and their dogs at the time of our trip. These demonstrations take place outside and the trip will go rain or shine, as the dogs work no matter the weather. Make sure you dress for the weather and wear comfortable shoes. As we will be outdoors approximately 1 1/2 hours for the demonstrations. We encourage you to bring a bag chair since seats may not be available at the field.

You are welcome to bring snacks or bag lunch with you on the trip. The group will stop to grab a fast food lunch (on-your-own) on the way back. The group will arrive back at the Anne Gordon Center in Raleigh at approximately 3:00pm.
